

Jim Freeman

Awarded: 2023

Jim is a true all-rounder, contributing to many aspects of the Foundation over the past 25 years. In his role as a maintenance volunteer he looked after sections in the Perth Hills and Donnelly Districts.

As a volunteer guide and a natural bush poet, Jim has shared his knowledge, skills and love of the bush with hundreds of participants taking part in the Foundation's events and tours.

He also comes into the office weekly to chat with walkers, help with trip planning and other tasks.

His handyman skills have assisted greatly over the years and his fine woodworking skills produced a multitude of awards including those presented to the end-to-end walkers today.

In between all this activity, Jim has found time to complete an incredible 14 End-to-Ends on the Track and, in 2021 received the regional WA Senior of the Year Award.
